

PRIVACY POLICY

of JCI United

As of 24 May 2018

JCI United is committed to respecting your privacy. In general, you can visit www.jciunited.fi without telling us who you are or revealing any personal information about yourself. IP addresses (the Internet address of a computer) are logged to track a user's session while the user remains anonymous. We analyze this data for certain trends and statistics, such as which parts of our site users are visiting and how long they spend there. This is done to provide you with interesting content and best possible user experience.

If you decide to fill in one of the contact forms on our website, that information will be saved in our customer registry and web server, and will be used to contact you as you requested.

Information on collected cookies

Our website uses different types of cookies to enable a functioning website, to help with visitor/user analytics as well as to improve page usability.

Cookies are tiny text files that are downloaded to the computer or mobile device of the visitor of the website. Cookies do not contain personal information and we cannot recognize you with them. They also do not harm your device or your files.

Google Analytics' cookies provides us information such as visitor numbers on our website and the most popular content on it.

All cookies, or just third party cookies, can be blocked off from the settings of your browser. Blocking cookies may prevent you to use some of the functions on our website.

What are your rights?

Unless subject to an exemption under the Regulations, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: ask for the information that we have about you, have inaccuracies corrected, have information erased, object to direct marketing.

JCI United does not transfer personal data to third parties unless required by law.
